SECURITY INFORMATION

IV-41344; Hqs., Reg. IV, 66th CIC Det., APC 407-A, US Army, dated 12 Feb. 1962, Subject: GIRM, Nina

8. PREVIOUS HISTORY:

From 1929 to 1939, SUBJECT attended primary school in BOGASZKA, Poland. From 1937 to 1939, SUBJECT was at home with her family in BOGASZKA, Poland. From 1939 to 1940, SUBJECT attended business school in LODZ, Poland. During the German occupation of Poland in 1939, SUBJECT worked in farmers' fields as a laborer. In 1940, SUBJECT worked for the Germans in WITOMIA, Poland, as a clerk in the public school, which was under German supervision. In 1941, SUBJECT went to BERLIN, voluntarily, to work in a German Government office which dealt with the registration of Polish Poles who were brought into BERLIN as forced laborers. SUBJECT held the latter job until the end of the war in 1945. SUBJECT met her present husband in WITOMIA, Poland, in 1940 while he was a construction engineer student receiving practical training in Poland. Herhard GIRM, SUBJECT's husband, was inducted into the German Army in 1941. He was wounded on the Russian front early in 1945 and was returned to his home in WAGNERSTADT (NSA/TS), Germany. SUBJECT received permission to leave BERLIN in April 1945 and went to WAGNERSTADT where she married Herhard GIRM. SUBJECT was unable to return to BERLIN in April 1945 due to the collapse of the German Army; therefore, she decided to remain in WAGNERSTADT. In June 1945, SUBJECT returned to BERLIN to obtain possession of her personal property that she had previously left behind. While in BERLIN, SUBJECT was arrested by Soviet Intelligence. SUBJECT remained under arrest by the Soviets until April 1946. At the time of SUBJECT's arrest by the Soviets, SUBJECT was already three months pregnant. SUBJECT gave birth to her first child, Georg, while held captive by the Russians. After SUBJECT's release, she and her husband found a small apartment in BERLIN on Unter den Eichen 66. SUBJECT has continued living with her husband in BERLIN up to the present date. In the meantime, SUBJECT gave birth to two more children, as listed above.

9. REFERENCE TO PREVIOUS REPORTS:

See Agent Report, Headquarters, Region IV, 66th CIC Detachment, BERLIN, Germany, Subject and File as above, dated 3 May 1961, and subsequent Reports dated 3 July 1961, 20 November 1961, and 14 December 1961. Also, subsequent Agent Report, Headquarters, Region VII, 66th CIC Detachment, BERLIN, Germany, Subject and File as above, dated 15 December 1961.

10. REASON FOR INVESTIGATION:

SUBJECT was reported to be a recruiting agent for the Soviet Intelligence Service which is currently operating in the US Zone of Germany.

11. RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION:

Investigation has proved that SUBJECT was definitely in the employ of the Soviet Intelligence Service and a complete confession was obtained.
